C.A.M.P.
The Campus Archaeology Museum Program
A summer archaeology day camp for students entering grades 4-6

Join experienced archaeology students every morning for a week of hands-on exploration into the field of archaeology.

When: August 4-8, 2014, 9:00 AM – 12:00 noon
Where: MSU Museum, 409 W. Circle Dr.
Who: Students entering grades 4-6
Instructors: MSU archaeology graduate students
Cost: $125
- includes an archaeology backpack kit to take home
- daily snacks and drinking water are provided

Campers will explore archaeology and discover answers to...

• What do archaeologists do?
• How do they know where to dig?
• How did that stuff get buried?
• What happens to the artifacts?
• What tools do archaeologists use?
• What does this tell us about past people?

Space is limited; registration is first come - first served
Register online at: https://commerce.cashnet.com/msu_3722

For more information contact Julie Fick at 517-355-2372 or jfick@msu.edu

Some outdoor activities are planned; accommodations can be made for individuals with disabilities if needed.