

ANP 491 - 2014 Methods in Cultural Heritage

Anthropology 491, Sec 301: Methods in Cultural Heritage

Name: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Major: _____ GPA: _____

Reference (name & email address): _____

In this class, students will learn the nature of cultural heritage, how we study and promote it, archival and research methods, integrating archaeological data with archival information, using histories and stories in cultural heritage, and putting together a cultural heritage plan. The class meets July 7 - July 30, on M, T, W from 9 am - 1 pm. We will be using a flipped classroom approach - students will read materials on their own, and we will put together a cultural heritage plan in class, using MSU Campus Archaeology. Students will also outline their own plan for an area of interest.

If you are currently enrolled in a college or university, please indicate the institution and your major field of study: _____

- List anthropology, archaeology, and/or related cultural heritage courses that you have completed or are currently enrolled in:

- Other experience/concerns pertinent to admission:

- Please attach a brief statement (no more than 1 page) explaining your interest in this course and topic.

Applications will be evaluated as they are received. Upon receipt of an acceptance notification, we will approve an override and you will be able to register.

Send completed form to: Dr. Lynne Goldstein, Dept. of Anthropology, 655 Auditorium Rd - 355 Baker, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824 or email to lynneg@msu.edu.

Applications due no later than March 15, 2014

MICHIGAN STATE
UNIVERSITY