

COMMONWEALTH HERITAGE GROUP DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP IN ARCHAEOLOGY

Undergraduate or graduate students with high financial need and who are or have been enrolled in archaeology courses offered by the Department of Anthropology will be considered for this award. Apply today for the $5,000 Commonwealth Heritage Group Diversity Scholarship!

Applicants must submit a written statement expressing interest in and/or experience with public archaeology, plans to incorporate public archaeology into their career, and provide two references.

Preference will be given to students who:

- show an interest in public archaeology research including the investigation of diverse cultures, demonstrated through their extracurricular activities, research, and/or coursework
- are first generation to attend college and/or are educationally disadvantaged

Call for Applications

Deadline:
April 15, 2022

Please submit applications to anpdept@msu.edu

Award review and selection will take place during spring semester 2022 with the scholarship awarded to the student during the following fall semester.

Department of Anthropology
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY